

Goldmann & Partners SB, <https://www.bcorporation.net/en-us/find-a-b-corp/company/goldmann-partners-srl/>, for the fourth year (in 2020 the Awards were suspended due to Covid) gets the Best For The World award for Environment. The Best For The World B Corps in Environment are taking bold action to preserve our most precious resources. With planet-friendly practices and environmental initiatives, these companies consider the impact of their everyday footprint, including energy usage, materials, facilities, supply chain, and more.

The award recognizes the company's ability to create products and/or services that also optimize the performance of its customers by helping to reduce the energy and environmental impact of their activities. Goldman & Partners SB considers this award an important recognition of its strong and continuous commitment to making this world the best possible.
